

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. My private life has improved due to decreased calls.